CANDIDATE'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The candidate understands that:

- Scholarships are tax deductible as per the law; it is the scholarship recipient's responsibility to manage the amount accordingly in order to avoid potentially paying tax on the amount.
- It is the scholarship recipient's responsibility to submit all the required documents at the application process.
- In the event of more than 10 applications yearly, the NRBHSS will hold a draw.
- It is the scholarship recipient's responsibility to submit the appropriate documents needed for the payment of the scholarship.
- The scholarship payment will be made in two instalments during the school year:
 - First payment: recipient will provide first semester's schedule.
 - Second payment: recipient will provide final transcript for the year with 80% of the courses passed.
- Bonus payments will be made as follows:
 - Graduation bonus: recipient will provide a copy of a letter from the teaching institution acknowledging completion of the degree.
 - Hiring bonus: recipient will provide a letter from the human-resources department of the hiring party confirming the hire.
- 80% of all classes need to be passed in order to receive the second payment, no minimum grades are required.
- In the event of dropout from the program, the recipient understands the remaining of the scholarship will not be paid.
- In the event of a change in the student's status, the recipient needs to inform the NRBHSS of the change, and the scholarship amount will be adjusted.
- Applicants will need to reapply each academic year. Being accepted one year is not a guarantee of being accepted in subsequent years.
