GRADUATION CEREMONY IN SALLUIT

Kuujuuaq, March 19th, 2024 – The Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services (NRBHSS), in partnership with Cégep Marie-Victorin, held its 3rd graduation ceremony of 2024, highlighting the academic achievements of two Inuit employees of Nunavik's Health and Social Services network. On March 18th, in Salluit, Lydia Alaku and Amanda Ikey successfully obtained their Attestation of College Studies (ACS) Communication in Helping Relationships.

"Over the past month, we've celebrated the academic achievements of a total of 13 Inuit graduates", said Jobie Tukkiapik, NRBHSS Director of Regional Human-Resources Development (RHRD). "Their success is not only a source of pride, but also an inspiring demonstration of the potential and determination of Nunavimmiut to pursue post-secondary education and contribute to our region's Health and Social Services network."

The NRBHSS and Cégep Marie-Victorin hope to continue organizing these graduation ceremonies to highlight the path taken by the graduates.
